Welcome back

Welcome back, have you had a great half term? And I expect that you are pleased to be back!

Maths word of the week

This week's word of the week is diameter. A diameter of a circle is a straight line passing through the centre which touches the curve forming the circle at each of its ends.

Pangea day May 10th 2008

Pangea day is a celebration that lasts 4 hours. It takes bits out of 24 films from 180 countries and puts them all together. Why not gather to watch film made by the world for the world, broadcast live around the globe.

SATS

Sadly it's that time of year again and the SATS have arrived. Year 2 and 6 are doing the test in May so make sure you revise and listen in class! Pupils in Y5, Y3 and Y4 you also have tests in May!

DID YOU KNOW?

Last Wednesday was Saint George's day when England's patron saint supposedly killed a Dragon. This Sunday in 1908 London hosted it's first Olympics

Chocolate Tip

The "Chocolate Box" is nicknamed for it's small, squarish design ; It's a legendary stadium in Argentina that opened in 1940 and still intimidates many rival teams.

Craft club

Just to give you a little reminder craft club is back on this week.

House points

This weeks scores are:

Lysander - 560

Hurricane - 540

Lancaster - 510

Spitfire - 500

Hurry up, Spitfire

Lost

There have been a pair of trainers that have gone missing; they are black with a white (Nike) tick on the side they belong to someone in year 2 and if you see them there will be a reward from Miss Ward. Good luck!

Marathon

On Sunday Mr Metcalf ran the London Marathon and did it in 4hours 42mins. He would like to say a very big thank you to all the people who sponsored him and you can still donate money to him by giving Mr Metcalf or Mrs Webb the money. Thank you!

Herald Cup Vs Dymchurch

M.O.M-Adam English

In our recent match against Dymchurch we qualified for the second round of the Herald Cup getting drawn against St Nicholas.

We got the game off to a cracking start with a huge kick by Simba which could have been left by Ryan but was tapped into the goal mouth, just to make sure. A second followed with Alfie Dickinson finishing from close range. But after some sloppy defending, Dymchurch pounced on a loose ball to fire in and put Hawkinge in the spotlight. With motivation Dymchurch pulled another one back making it 2-2.

With Hawkinge realising they had to score to keep their Herald Cup dream alive they started to control the game again. A fantastic through-ball by Paul set-up Ryan who took the ball riskily around the keeper and slotted home. Hawkinge got a fourth when Ryan scored his hat-trick when he slammed the ball home from inside the box. The final goal was a cheeky chip from Ryan when he saw the keeper off his line. Credit to the defence who kept the back line tight.

Please come and support us against St Nicholas next Friday!

Joke of the week

This week's joke is What drink do wrestlers like?

Fruit punch!!!
