

Hawkinge Primary School Newsletter

Written by: Ryan Taylor, Ross Saunders, Phoebe Webb, Sophy Mynard, Charlotte Dodson and Rebecca Booker

30th November 2007

House points!

Every week, you all get so much better!

Spitfire - 180

Hurricane - 160

Lysander - 150

Lancaster - 100

Almost at the 200's, Spitfire!

Garden tools

If you have any old garden tools such as spades, trowels, forks etc that you would be willing to donate to the school please give them to Ms Nicholson Taylor. Thank you.

Dancing festival

On Tuesday 27th November Miss Godden took some children from Y1/2 to the Harvey Grammar School, to participate in a dance festival. They all did very well there. A big thank you to Miss Godden for training them, and Mrs Chown for the costume making!!

Greatstone Tournament

If you played in the football tournament at Greatstone there is a chance to see some of you in action! Log onto www.kentschoolsfa.org then go onto photo gallery then, season 2007/2008 then, Inter school and the boys 7's school football. For more information ask Miss Ward or Ryan Taylor.

Boxes and bottles

If anyone has any plastic bottles or boxes at home that are empty could Ms Nicholson Taylor please have them for her DT lessons? If you have tissue boxes, cereal boxes, coke bottles, orange squash bottles but no glass bottles, they would be greatly appreciated. Thank you!

Christmas Craft Day

The school will be open on Saturday for families' to come and join in with Christmas Craft activities. The school will be open from 10 - 1pm in the school hall, mince pies and cups of coffee will be served. The following workshops will be open: paint a mug for £5, make your own Christmas cards with Miss March, make Christmas tree decorations with Miss Dawe, Christmas gift tags etc.

Eco tip of the week

The eco tip of the week is having energy saving light bulbs. They work just as well as normal light bulbs but they are better for the environment.

Stars of the week

Grizzly Bears - Aysha Wilson
Orang-utans - Ella Francis
Golden Eagles - Danielle Humphrey
Snow Leopards - Harry Nuth
Rhinos - Adam Bowden
Wombats - Megan Elkin
Lemurs - Lucinda Lovell
Pandas - Callum Shorter
Otters - Grace Lester

Netball

We would just like to say a huge thank you to Tony Saunders for buying our school netball team new bibs. They look fantastic, and the bonus is that they are also reversible!

ASDA local hero

On Monday 26th November, Zak Fouad went for a photo shoot and to open the new ASDA in the shopping mall in Folkestone. This was because he was nominated No.1 Local Hero for ASDA. Go Zak!

Pantomime

On the 4th December the whole school will be going to Canterbury Marlowe Theatre. We will be leaving the school at 2.30pm till 6.00pm. But remember you can only come if you bring in your pantomime slip so bring it in before Monday the 3rd. When we get back to school, children can be collected from their classrooms only not from the coach for safety reasons.

Important visitor

Last Friday Michael Howard came to visit the school. He walked around the whole school and visited some children in lessons. He went to Otters class with some people from Sainsburys to meet the Reception children. They had made him some Divali sweets!

Michael Howard came to visit the school to celebrate the amount of Active Kids vouchers we collected last year the most in the area - so well done to everyone!

School Council

Last week our school council had their third meeting of the year. They discussed your thoughts on the Ks2 toilets so; we wrote a letter to Mrs Watson asking her to consider some of our ideas. We have asked her if we can renew the toilets-sinks, toilets, cubicles making them more welcoming.

