Development days

- We have had 2 of the 5 development days already this year – 3rd and 4th September
- The next Development day will be Wednesday 8th January – we realise this is a tricky day because school starts back on Monday 6th January.
- We will also be having one on 24th June – a Tuesday.
- The January and June Development Days are not tagged onto the end of a weekend or half term (our usual practice) because we are joining together with several other schools to work with a man called Pie Corbet. He is an eminent literacy expert, and we are very lucky to be able to listen to his 'words of wisdom' in helping us raise attainment in writing. I hope that publishing these dates as early as we have means that you can plan around them.
- 2nd June will be a Development Day
