Dear Parents,

Today is Mrs Bull's last day at school before her maternity leave starts. I am sure you will want to join in me wishing her all the best for all the sleepless nights ahead! We will really miss Mrs Bull at school - always organised, a calm influence on us as a staff and the children too! She is always upbeat and has a mischievous sense of humour! Her baby is due in the next couple of weeks - we will keep you posted with her news. Her and Mr Bull are ready for their new arrival and will be great parents.

Thank you to everyone who took part in the 'Christmas Reading Challenge'! The photographs are on display just inside the main doors by the hall - please have a look! The winners of the competition are:

- Kandinsky - Kiera Waite
- Van Gogh - Emmeline Lambourne
- Peter Smith - Harry Baker
- Paul Klee - Jessie-May Arnold
- Matisse - Julia Grontman
- Modigliani - Poppy Middleton
- Leonid Afremov - Harry Elson
- Salvador Dali - Poppy Harris
- Libby Lord - Callum Rynne

There are some great photographs of children reading under the Christmas Tree, or next to the Christmas turkey! Do have a look at them!

The time children are arriving at school in the morning has really improved over the last week - thank you to everyone who has been getting up a few minutes earlier to get the children into school. In case you missed my newsletter last week can I remind you lessons start at 8:45am so children arriving after that time will be missing the first part of their lessons. Thank you for your continued support.

Have a lovely weekend,

Aly
